SB Tactical® Now Shipping the SBA3™ Adjustable Pistol Stabilizing Brace® for AR Pistols

Saint Petersburg, Fla. (April 6, 2018) – SB Tactical®, inventors and manufacturers of the Pistol Stabilizing Brace®, is excited to announce that the SBA3™ for AR pistols is now shipping nationwide.

Designed for all platforms capable of accepting a mil-spec carbine receiver extension, the 5-position adjustable SBA3 does not change the classification of the host pistol in accordance with GCA provisions.

The SBA3 comes as a complete assembly, including a mil-spec carbine receiver extension and an integral, ambidextrous QD socket for sling attachment. Weighing just 6.75 ounces and measuring 6.1 inches, the SBA3 is available in black and FDE, and includes an adjustable nylon strap.

Like all SB Tactical Pistol Stabilizing Braces, the SBA3 is BATFE compliant, U.S. veteran designed, and proudly manufactured in the USA.
